Bringing Baby Home™ Sections

The Bringing Baby Home (BBH) Sections are a series of six classes expanded from BBH Couples Workshop content and designed to enable educators to present material in a more flexible format. The purpose of teaching a Section is to present a specific topic to an audience while allowing the opportunity for in-depth exploration of the content.

Each Section is a stand-alone presentation that can be taught on its own. BBH Sections can be marketed as individual talks or classes and are distinctly different from the Bringing Baby Home Couples Workshop.

Each of the six "Individual Instructor's Kits" contains the material educators need to prepare and teach the curriculum. To be eligible to teach a Section, you must be a Certified Gottman Educator.

Section titles include: The Transition to Parenthood, Children & Parents: A Delicate Relationship, Making the Magic Last, Managing Stress and Conflict Regulation, Emotional Communication and Children, and Creating a Shared Family Legacy.

* Some Instructor's Kits include Exercise Card Decks (ADR, MML, CSL).

6-Set Series Instructor's Package

The full set of 6 Sections are included in the Series Package. Each Section includes a full-color Instructor's Guide, a Parent Handbook, and a Presentation CD with the Section's slide presentation, class agenda, class evaluation form, and ready-to-print slide handouts in color and black and white. Sections Exercise Card Decks and Posters are included.* $359.99
